A Sensitization Program on “Eradication of Dowry Menace”

Date: February 26, 2026

Chief Guest: Thiru. N. Ramesh

REPORT:

During the academic year 2025–2026, several awareness programs and sensitization initiatives were organized by Legal services clinic of Bharathidasan Government College for women, with the aim of promoting gender equality, legal literacy, and social responsibility among students and staff. These programs addressed key societal issues and empowered participants with knowledge and awareness to contribute towards a more inclusive and just society.

A symposium on “Creating Gender Friendly Spaces in Workplaces” was conducted on July 25, 2025 to emphasize the importance of inclusivity, respect, and equality in professional environments. The session was led by Ms. J. Marie Anna Dayavady, Advocate and Notary Public, and Dr. Marie Josephine Aruna, Assistant Professor, Department of English, KMGIPSR. The speakers provided valuable insights into workplace ethics, gender sensitivity, and legal provisions that ensure a safe and respectful environment for all. The session was highly informative and encouraged participants to adopt inclusive practices.

An awareness program on the Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH) Act, 2013 was organized on August 20, 2025 to educate participants about their rights and responsibilities in maintaining a safe workplace. The session was conducted by Ms. D. Reena Iswariya, Senior Advocate, who explained the provisions of the Act, redressal mechanisms, and the importance of maintaining dignity in professional spaces. The program enhanced participants’ understanding of legal safeguards and the significance of ethical conduct.

An awareness program was conducted on January 30, 2026 to commemorate National Girl Child Day, focusing on empowering girls and promoting gender equality. The event was graced by Mrs. Shruti S. Yaragatti, IPS, Superintendent of Police, and Adv. S. Radijagopalan, Panel Lawyer, UTPLSA, as chief guests. They addressed issues related to women’s safety, education, rights, and legal protection. Their inspiring speeches motivated students to uphold the dignity and rights of girls and women in society.

A sensitization program on “Eradication of Dowry Menace” was organized on February 26, 202, to create awareness about the harmful effects of dowry practices. The chief guest, Thiru. N. Ramesh, highlighted the legal consequences and social impact of dowry. The session stressed the need to eradicate this social evil and encouraged participants to take a strong stand against such practices in society.

Symposium: “Creating Gender Friendly Spaces in Work Places”

Date: 31.07.2025

Time: 12.00 PM – 01.00 PM

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), jointly with the Legal Services Clinic, organized a Symposium on “Creating Gender Friendly Spaces in Work Places” with the objective of promoting gender equality, inclusivity, and safe working environments.

The symposium commenced on a solemn and respectful note with the Thamizh Thai Vazhthu, invoking a sense of pride and cultural identity among the gathering.

The programme formally began with the Welcome Address delivered by Dr. Nisha Sharma, who warmly welcomed the dignitaries, resource persons, faculty members, and participants. In her address, she highlighted the significance of the symposium and emphasized the importance of creating inclusive and gender-friendly spaces in workplaces.

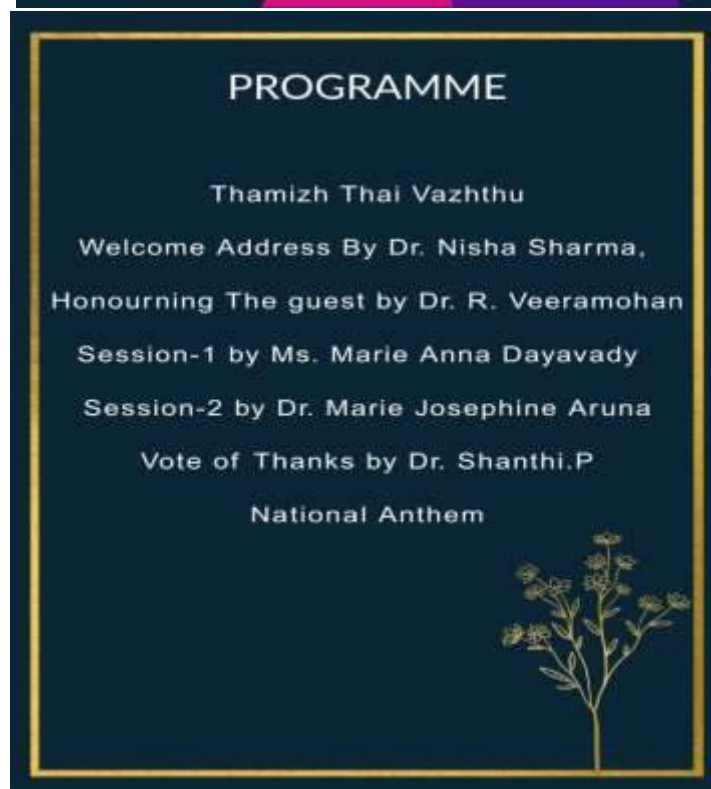

This was followed by the Honouring of the Guests by Dr. R. Veeramohan, who felicitated the esteemed resource persons and acknowledged their valuable contribution to the academic and professional community.

The academic sessions began with Session I by Ms. Marie Anna Dayavady, Advocate and Notary Public. In her session, she elaborated on legal perspectives related to gender equality, workplace rights, and preventive mechanisms against harassment. Her session provided participants with a clear understanding of laws, responsibilities, and ethical practices essential for ensuring safe and respectful work environments.

Session II was handled by Dr. Marie Josephine Aruna, Assistant Professor, Department of English, KMGIPSR. Her session focused on the social, psychological, and communicative dimensions of gender sensitivity in workplaces. She emphasized the role of language, attitude, and mutual respect in fostering inclusive professional spaces.

The programme concluded with the Vote of Thanks proposed by Dr. Shanthi P., who expressed sincere gratitude to the resource persons, organizers, faculty members, participants, and all those who contributed to the successful conduct of the symposium.

The event came to a dignified close with the National Anthem, marking the end of a meaningful and enlightening programme.

National Girl child day- 2026

Date: 30th January 2026

Time: 03.00 PM – 05.00 PM

An Awareness Programme in commemoration of National Girl Child Day - 2026 was jointly organised by the Legal Services Clinic, Bharathidasan Government College for Women (BGCW) and HOPE, on 30th January 2026 (Friday) from 3:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. at Bharathidasan Government College for Women, Puducherry. The programme aimed to create awareness among students about the importance of girl child empowerment, women's safety, legal rights, and cyber security.

The programme commenced with Thamizh Thai Vazhthu, invoking a sense of cultural pride and solemnity among the participants. This was followed by the Welcome Address delivered by Dr. Shanthi P, Chairperson, Legal Services Clinic, BGCW, and Assistant Professor, Department of English. In her address, she warmly welcomed the dignitaries, resource persons, and students, and highlighted the significance of observing National Girl Child Day to promote gender equality and safeguard the rights of women and girls.

The Introduction to the Programme was presented by Mr. P. Joseph Victor Raj, Director, HOPE. He elaborated on the objectives of the programme and the collaborative efforts of HOPE and the Legal Services Clinic in addressing social and legal issues related to women. He emphasized the importance of awareness initiatives in empowering young women to face contemporary challenges with confidence.

The Inaugural Address was delivered by Dr. R. Madivanan, Principal, Bharathidasan Government College for Women. In his inspiring speech, he stressed the vital role of education in empowering the girl child and encouraged students to be aware of their rights and responsibilities. He appreciated the initiative taken by the Legal Services Clinic and HOPE in organizing such a meaningful programme.

The technical session on Women's Safety - Cyber Crimes was handled by Mrs. Shruti S. Yaragatti, IPS, Superintendent of Police (Cyber Crime), Puducherry. She delivered an informative and engaging talk on cyber threats faced by women, including online harassment, cyber stalking, and digital frauds. She also provided practical guidance on cyber safety measures, legal remedies, and the importance of reporting cyber crimes promptly.

This was followed by a session on Women's Safety-Legal Perspectives by Adv. S. Radijagopalan, Panel Lawyer, UTPLSA. He explained various legal provisions available for the protection of women, highlighting important laws and rights. His session helped students gain a clear understanding of legal safeguards and the role of legal services in ensuring justice for women.

The programme also featured a segment on Winter Internship with HOPE, introduced by Ms. D. Berline, Ms. S. Brindha, Ms. R. Brundha, Ms. K. Deepna, and Ms. E. Dhanalakshmi. They shared their experiences and insights regarding the internship, encouraging students to participate in social and legal awareness initiatives and gain practical exposure.

The Certificate Distribution ceremony was conducted to acknowledge and appreciate the participants and contributors to the programme.

The programme concluded with the Vote of Thanks proposed by Ms. Janet Cynthia J, Content Writer, HOPE. She expressed gratitude to the dignitaries, resource persons, organizers, and students for their active participation and support, which contributed to the success of the programme.

The event ended with the National Anthem, marking a respectful and patriotic closure.

The programme was effectively compered by Ms. Niranjana Sreekumar, Ms. Ishita Singh, and Ms. Rithika R, HOPE interns from Vellore Institute of Technology, who ensured the smooth flow of the event.

Overall, the Awareness Programme was highly informative and impactful. It successfully sensitized students to the issues concerning the girl child, women's safety, cyber awareness, and legal rights, thereby fulfilling the objectives of National Girl Child Day.

Sensitization Program on “Eradication of Dowry Menace”

Date: 26 February 2026

Time: 12.00 PM - 1.00 PM

The Legal Services Clinic and the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of Bharathidasan Government College for Women, Puducherry, jointly organized a Sensitization Program on the topic “Eradication of Dowry Menace” on 26 February 2026, from 12.00 PM to 1.00 PM at the Conference Hall of the college. The primary objective of the program was to create awareness among students about the social, legal, and moral implications of the dowry system and to encourage them to actively contribute toward eliminating this harmful practice from society.

The program commenced with the traditional rendition of Tamizh Thai Vazhthu, invoking pride in the Tamil language and culture. This was followed by the Welcome Address delivered by Dr. Shanthi. P, Chairperson of the Legal Services Clinic, who warmly welcomed the Chief Guest, the Principal, faculty members, and students. In her address, she emphasized the importance of legal awareness among young women and highlighted the role of educational institutions in shaping responsible citizens who stand against social evils such as dowry.

The Inaugural Address was delivered by the respected Principal, Dr. R. Madivanane. In his speech, he stressed that the dowry system continues to exist despite strict legal prohibitions and awareness campaigns. He encouraged students to empower themselves through education, self-confidence, and knowledge of their legal rights. He also emphasized that women’s empowerment is a key factor in eradicating dowry-related discrimination and violence.

The Felicitation Address was given by Dr. Sahul Hameed, Co-ordinator of IQAC, who appreciated the initiative taken by the Legal Services Clinic. He spoke about the importance of sensitization programs in creating social awareness and highlighted that young people play a vital role in transforming societal attitudes and practices.

The highlight of the event was the Special Lecture delivered by the Chief Guest, Thiru. N. Ramesh, Secretary, District Legal Services Authority, Puducherry. He provided valuable insights into the legal provisions related to the dowry system, including the Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961, and explained the rights and protections available to women under Indian law. He also spoke about the role of the District Legal Services Authority in providing free legal aid and support to victims of dowry harassment. His speech encouraged students to be aware of their rights, to speak up against injustice, and to promote equality and dignity in marriage and society.

The session was highly informative and interactive, helping students understand the seriousness of the dowry menace and the importance of legal awareness. The program concluded with the Vote of Thanks delivered by Johannah Iraiyrasi. T, Student Co-ordinator, who expressed sincere gratitude to the Chief Guest for his enlightening lecture, the Principal for his guidance, the faculty members for their support, and the students for their active participation. The event ended with the National Anthem, marking a respectful conclusion.

Overall, the sensitization program was a meaningful and impactful initiative that enhanced students' awareness about the social and legal aspects of dowry and inspired them to contribute toward building a just and equitable society free from dowry practices.

REPORT of the seminar on LEGAL EMPOWERMENT of WOMEN- 28.3.2017

Bharathidasan Government College for women (Autonomous), Puducherry and Union Territory of Puducherry Legal Services Authority (UTPLSA) jointly organized RUSA sponsored one day Regional Seminar on Legal Empowerment Women on 28th March 2017 in the College Auditorium. Tmt.

S.Ramathilaga, Chief judge ,Puducherry, was the chief guest, Dr. G. Narendra Kumar, I.A.S Development Commissioner –cum- Secretary (Education),Puducherry inaugurated the seminar.

The Seminar began with Registration of the student participants followed by Invocation and Lighting of the Kuthuvilaku . Dr.P.Poongavanam, Principal, BGCW delivered the welcome address while Dr.Rajiny Chanolian, Coordinator presented the theme of the seminar and Dr. G. Narendra Kumar,I.A.S delivered the inaugural address. He shared his experiences when at Delhi as Secretary, Ministry of Women and Child Development where he rendered services and implemented several schemes for the welfare of women and children, especially legal counseling in conjunction with NALSA.Thiru G. Sendilkumar, Secretary to Government (Law) Puducherry, Tmt. V. Sofana Devi, District Judge, Member Secretary, Union Territory of Puducherry Legal Services Authority, Thiru Yasam Lakshmi Narayana Reddy, Additional Secretary to Government (Home), Puducherry & Director of Higher & Technical Education felicitated the conduct of the seminar. Chief Judge Tmt. S. Ramathilagam delivered the presidential address wherein she pointed out the importance of women at workplace and at home. The leadership qualities of the women should be garnered with education, she impressed upon the students. She spoke at length about the nurturing qualities of women who take care of their family and once educated the same women extend similar service at the workplace as well. She therefore emphasized the need for education which will lead to awareness of the rights of women.

The Resource Person of the first session Thiru K.Prabu, II Additional District Munsif, Puducherry deliberated upon Legal Rights of Women provided in the constitution of India, starting from civil rights to protection against violence against women, laws related to sexual harassment, dowry, and property rights. He impressed upon the students that as such constitution provides equal rights for women but it so happens that women and girls are unaware of their own rights which leads to the exercising of gender equity. This regional seminar he hoped will create the right kind of awareness in the students for further empowerment.

The Resource Person of the Second Session Thiru R.S.Zivanandam, Advocate, Puducherry, dwelled at length on Laws related to violence against women and remedies with regard to Acid attack . He advised the students to be careful and approach legal authority or the police when they feel threats of acid attack.

The next resource person of session III Tmt. V. Sofana Devi, District Judge as Member Secretary, Union Territory of Puducherry Legal Services Authority listed out the Role of Legal Services Authority relating to several women's issues including acid attack , domestic violence ,stalking, eve-teasing, and any other form of undesirable crime committed both at home and in public places. She also stated that first and 15th of every month the Legal services clinic organizes free counseling for students by appointing an advocate to give counseling to girls in trouble and also to enable them to execute their legal rights concerning such issues. She also emphasized that UTPLSA take care for speedy implementation of legal process to resolve those issues.

Session IV- Interface Session included speakers like Thiru G. Sendilkumar, Secretary to Government (Law) Puducherry, Tmt. V. Sofana Devi, District Judge, Member Secretary, Union Territory of Puducherry Legal Services Authority, Thiru J.Selvanandhan, II – Additional District Judge, Puducherry and Thiru J.Dayalane,Tahsildar,Taluk Office, Puducherry Who deftly answered all queries raised by the student participants. It was a productive session with the girls coming up with issues related to personal issues, issues related to revenue office, property rights, molestation, rape and acid attack. The students were of the opinion that the punishment for the crime such as rape , acid attack must be made more severe and the criminals should never be pardoned. The speakers readily answered their queries and also offered to help them in any way and every way possible to find solutions to these issues through legal authority.

At the valedictory Dr.P.Poongavanam delivered the valedictory address and appreciated the work done by the staff members in creating a conducive atmosphere for the girls to have firsthand knowledge on their basic rights, problems related to women and the solutions.

The advisory Members of the seminar Dr. K.Subramani, RUSA Co-Ordinator, Dr.Josephine Nirmala Many, Head of the Department of Home Science, Dr. P.Nadesan, Head of the Department of Economics, Dr. S.Sahul Hameed , Assistant Professor of Corporate Secretaryship and offered their felicitations at the successful conduct of the seminar followed by students feedback , and certificate distribution.

Earlier Dr. S. Alamelu Mangai, Convenor & Organising Secretary of Seminar, and Chairman, Legal Services Clinic along with Coordinator, Co Co-ordinators Dr.L.Sucheta Soma Kirupa, Dr. Marie Joesphine Aruna and Organising Committee Members had made all arrangements for the regional seminar. .

Report of

NATIONAL WEBINAR on LEGAL ISSUES during COVID-19- 28th October 2020

The National level Webinar on Legal Issues during COVID-19, conducted on the occasion of International Girl Child Day 2020, was jointly organised by Union Territory of Puducherry Legal Services Authority, Legal Services Clinic and Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat Club of Bharathidasan Govt. College for Women (Autonomous), Puducherry on 28th of October, 2020 via Google meet – online platform. There were around 110 participants from various colleges across the country. The registered participants include the resource persons of the webinar, professors and students of Bharathidasan Govt. College for Women as well as from nearly 28 colleges from other states and Union Territory.

The webinar focussed on creating awareness among the various participants especially girls and women about the common and cruel legal issues they happen to face in the society, especially during such hard times like COVID-19 pandemic is prevailing. The objective of the webinar is to disseminate thorough knowledge about the laws and acts that would help the victims of legal issues that are oriented to girls and women overcome them.

The webinar took a head start with the welcome address given by Dr. S. Alamelu Mangai, Convenor of the webinar, Chairperson of Legal Services Clinic, Bharathidasan Govt. College for Women, and the State Coordinator of Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat Club for Puducherry. The event was followed by the Presidential address of Dr. K. Subramani, The Principal of Bharathidasan Govt. College for Women.

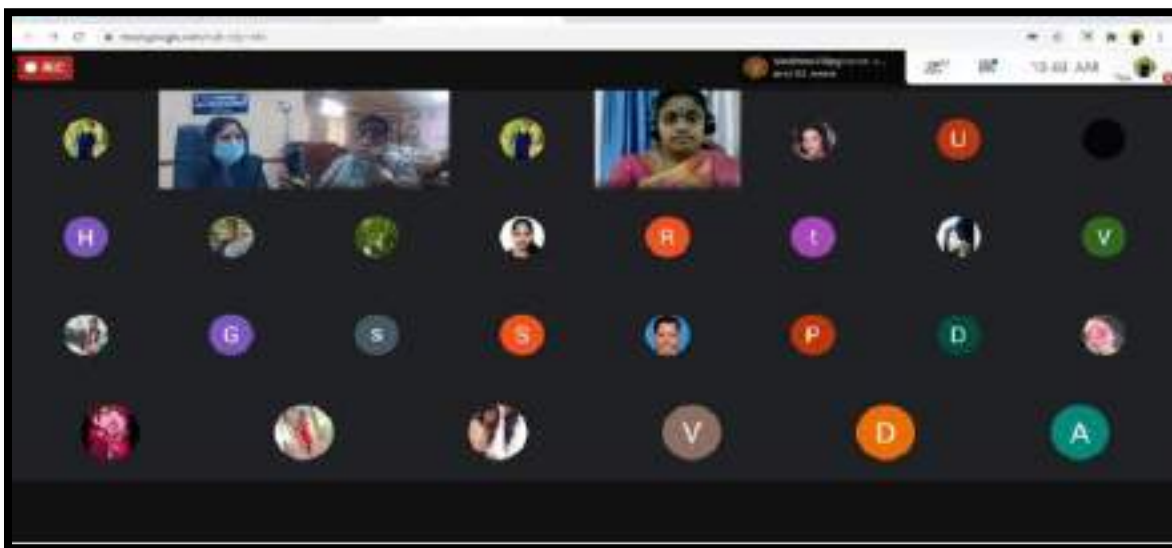

The session was inaugurated by Tmt. V. Sofana Devi, District Judge cum Member Secretary of Union Territory of Puducherry Legal Services Authority, followed by her Keynote address that highlighted on the basic rights for women and its provisions in the Indian constitution. The felicitation address was presented by Ms. D. Divya, I.P.S., Puducherry.

For the webinar on Legal Issues during COVID-19, the first speaker of the session, Dr. S. Suba, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Women's Studies, Bharathidasan University, Trichy gave a detailed presentation on the chosen topic "Domestic Violence – Shadow of Pandemic" wherein she discussed the causes and consequences of the domestic violence against women and legal means and laws to be known with respect to the safety of women against such violence. The second speaker of the session, Mrs. Fathima, Clinical psychologist cum Family counsellor, Founder of Sneham Thozhiyar Thondiyakkam, Puducherry presented on the topic "Child Abuse and Child Marriage" wherein she casted spotlight on the issue as well as other issues faced by children through society and familial problems and the ways to overcome several such issues.

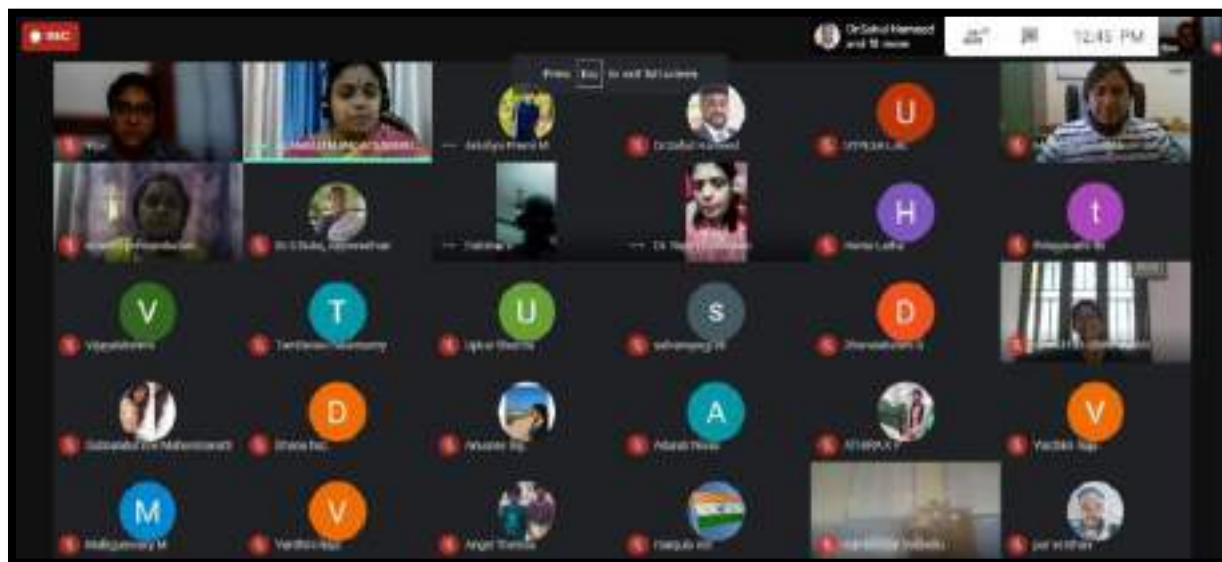

The first and the second speaker were introduced by Dr. Ch. Rajiny, Assistant Professor – Dept. of CND, Bharathidasan Govt. College for Women and Ms. P. Hemavathi, Student member of Legal Services Clinic, Bharathidasan Govt. College for Women respectively. The entire session was moderated by Ms. Anishya Premi. M, Student Coordinator of EBSB club with the guidance of Dr. S. Gayathri. Assistant Professor, Dept. of Corporate Secretaryship, Bharathidasan Govt. College for Women. The webinar came to an end with a Question/Answer session where the participants popped up various questions and their doubts to the speakers, after which a feedback form was circulated to the participants to know the thoughts and suggestions of the participants regarding the Webinar. The webinar was considered a thorough success as it created a notable impact on the minds of the participants. The webinar was brought to an end by the vote of thanks presented by Dr. P. Shanthi, Nodal Officer of EBSB Club, Assistant Professor- Dept. of English, Bharathidasan Govt. College for Women, Puducherry.
